

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE: MDL Docket No 06-1791 VRW
NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY ORDER
TELECOMMUNICATIONS RECORDS
LITIGATION

This order pertains to:

Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation et al v Bush et al (C-07-0109 VRW),

The court has, in keeping with its orders dated January 5 (Doc #537/57), February 13 (Doc #562/71) and February 19 (Doc #566/75), reviewed the Sealed Document and the parties' various submissions on the subject of appropriate measures to prevent disclosure of classified information while allowing "both parties [] access to the material upon which the court makes a decision." RT, Hearing held January 23, 2009 (Doc #532/67) at 34 and Doc #562/71 at 2,3.

The United States, in response to the court's directive to "inform the court how it intends to comply with the January 5 order" (Doc #562/71 at 3) has offered up three similar-sounding

1 alternatives all of which appear geared toward obtaining a stay of 2 this court's proceedings and review by the court of appeals, even 3 though its simultaneous attempts to obtain review as of right and
4 by means of an interlocutory appeal of the January 5 order failed
5 in February (Doc #562/71 and Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc v
6 Obama, No 09-15266 (9th Cir February 27, 2009)). As both this 7 court and the court of appeals have determined that this matter is 8 properly before the court, the United States should now comply with 9 the court's orders.

10 Accordingly, the parties are hereby ordered to meet and 11 confer regarding the entry of an appropriate protective order which 12 shall be entered herein before the court rules on the merits. The 13 United States District Court for the District of Columbia has 14 successfully employed protective orders in the In Re Guantánamo Bay
15 Detainee Litigation, D DC No Misc 08-0442 TFH, even providing for 16 the use of top secret/sensitive compartmented information (TS/SCI).
17 See, for example, the documents at docket numbers 409 and 1481 in 18 that matter. The United States has advanced no argument that would 19 suggest a reason why the court's use of a protective order in 20 instant matter modeled on those in use in the Guantánamo Bay would 21 not adequately protect the classified information at issue here.

22 The parties shall submit to the court a stipulated
23 protective order on or before May 8, 2009. If the parties are 24 unable to agree on all terms, they shall jointly submit a document
25 containing all agreed terms together with a document setting forth
26 the terms about which they are unable to reach agreement and the 27 respective positions of the parties with regard to each such term.

1 The court will then consider the submissions and enter a protective
2 order under which this case may resume forward progress.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
